In keeping with the tradition to have hometown royalty, Per guidelines put in place by the CRF board, all applicants' mailing addresses (or by personal choice) should make them eligible to attend Richwood High School or a feeder school to Richwood High School. For example, Cherry River, Gauley River, and Panther Creek Elementary. For the Miss applicants, they are required to currently be attending or to have graduated from Richwood High School. If homeschooled, applicants' mailing addresses should be in the RHS jurisdiction. Candidates with a primary Richwood address and any alternative school choice will need to be considered eligible by the CRF board before applying. Anyone applying shall be unmarried and must be of outstanding character.
